"Preserve, Communicate, Celebrate."

FRANKENMUTH HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

Who Are We?

The Frankenmuth Historical Association operates a seven-gallery museum, an authentic 1800's log house, the Trading Post gift shop which offers historic and locally crafted goods, the historic Fischer Hall, and preserves a collection of over 30,000 artifacts.

Our Mission

The mission of the Frankenmuth Historical Association is to preserve, communicate, and celebrate the heritage of the Franconian communities and to promote a greater appreciation for local, regional, national and world history among the residents of and visitors to Frankenmuth.

Why is your donation important?

Funds raised from our annual auction are used to create exhibits, maintain our collection, preserve our facilities, educate visitors, and enhance our membership. We would not be able to operate without the generosity of our sponsors, donors, and everyone here tonight. Thank you!

a letter from our director...

Welcome to the Frankenmuth Historical Association's 39th Annual Fundraising Auction! We are thrilled to be here once again at the always-fabulous Bavarian Inn Lodge for a fun night of food, fellowship, and ensuring that our local historical museum will continue to preserve, communicate, and celebrate Frankenmuth's history.

We've completed a lot this year in terms of programming and celebrating our history. Two new galleries are checked off our to-do list, with two more coming in the spring. We absolutely shattered our record of guided tours, field trips, and students served this year. Our coloring books, podcasts, and Walking Tour videos are being enjoyed by thousands of people, many without ever having to step foot in Frankenmuth. To say we are blessed with an amazing staff, board, and community supporters, is an understatement! We are able to do what we do because of you!

While the money raised tonight is crucial for our day-to-day operations, tonight is also so much more than that. We appreciate the support given to us by your attendance, your kind words, and seeing your joy at the event. It is here that we hear the "thank yous," "good jobs," and the anticipations and appreciations of our upcoming or past events and activities that you attended and enjoyed. Our museum is thankful that we have such a supporting community to rally around us year after year, event after event, auction after auction.

A special thank you to the businesses, groups, individuals, staff, and volunteers who have donated, worked, and organized this event. Although this year is our 39th auction, we continue to be blessed by businesses and groups who continue to prove that Frankenmuth history is worth keeping and sharing!

Now, as usual, bid high, bid often, and raise your paddle high knowing that your support aids the preservation, communication, and celebration of your history.
